Dear Lenny,

You packed a powerful lot of information into just a few hours. I'm very grateful for the time that you spent with me and for the information supplied by your leadership. I came away with a considerably better understanding of the challenges confronting DIA and its relationship to the Intelligence Community, and with an appetite to learn more about some of the programs that were covered today.

Thank you for the warm hospitality. I am glad to have had this session at an early stage.

With highest regards,

Sincerely,

William H. Webster
